

DE LA SALLE HIGH SCHOOL CONCORD, CALIFORNIA

POSITION SEARCH Beginning 2019-20 School Year Arts Teacher

The school seeks an educator who can teach courses in visual arts. A background in graphic design and digital arts is desirable, but not necessary.

De La Salle High School, established in 1965 and sponsored by the Brothers of the Christian Schools (De La Salle Christian Brothers), is a Lasallian Catholic college preparatory school for boys providing a rich environment for spiritual, academic, and social growth. Its rigorous program of studies is complemented by an extensive array of co-curricular programs. The school's atmosphere is one that is moral, caring, and joyful. The school is located in the City of Concord, 25 miles east of San Francisco on a 20 acre campus characterized by beauty and openness.

The school seeks a candidate who can promote the school's Lasallian Catholic mission of serving students and can promote the school's core values of faith, integrity, and scholarship.

KEY CANDIDATE CHARACTERISTICS

- Maintains open, helping relationships with students in their care.
- Believes in the work of Lasallian Catholic education and shows evidence of developing the whole person through activities that help students grow in mind, body, soul, and spirit.
- Continually develops a professional and service-oriented approach to serving students and utilizes a wide range of resources and techniques appropriate for use with students.
- Supports the programs that serve students and contributes to their development.
- Teaches the established and approved curriculum as well as contributes to the development of the program of studies.
- Participates in department meetings, professional development programs, as well as contributes to the co-curricular life of the school.

- Demonstrates evidence of commitment to a vision for 21st century teaching and learning and the ability to bring such a commitment to service on a daily basis.
- Participates regularly in programs of professional growth.
- Works collaboratively and cooperatively with faculty, staff, administration, and parents.
- Minimally holds a Bachelor's degree in the area in which one will serve. A Master's degree is preferred. It is the usual expectation that classroom teachers hold a teaching credential or be in the process of obtaining one.
- Has the skills to work with a variety of student needs and the ability to address multiple learning styles.
- Uses school-based technology well, embraces effective practices in curriculum development and assessment of students, and demonstrates strong communication skills, both written and verbal.

Priority consideration is given to qualified Roman Catholics.
