

JUSTIN-SIENA

Instructor of Science

Justin-Siena is seeking a full-time high school science teacher for the 2019-2020 school year.

The essential responsibilities of this position include, but are not limited to:

- Teaching five sections of science, primarily in biology and chemistry;
- Collaborating with colleagues to investigate, develop and deliver our curriculum;
- Serving on teams to develop whole-school initiatives;
- Advising a small group of students;
- Engaging meaningfully in student life or athletic programming;
- Performing weekend, evening, or overnight duties as assigned.

Above all, we seek candidates who support the school's Lasallian Catholic mission; serve as positive role models of faith and the school's ideals of inclusivity, social justice, educational excellence, and loving community; and are committed to maximizing the holistic growth of all students. Justin-Siena seeks applications from a diverse population of job seekers.

Qualifications

Candidates must possess demonstrated competence in the content area and in using research-based pedagogical practices. An advanced degree in the content area is preferred. Preference will be given to those with experience in Catholic high schools. Preference will also be given to those with the ability to teach all science courses at the college prep, honors, and AP[®] levels and who have a keen interest in incorporating appropriate innovative technologies. We seek candidates with an active interest in developing courses with substantive cross-curricular, experiential, and service components. We seek candidates with track records of positive, professional collaboration in team settings and with the desire and capacity to grow as instructional leaders. An understanding of the developmental needs of adolescents is necessary; therefore, we seek a healthy combination of positivity, flexibility, energy, creativity, and sense of humor. We seek demonstrated experience working in a diverse, inclusive community and strong cross-cultural competency skills.

School Overview

Justin-Siena is a Catholic college preparatory high school sponsored by the De La Salle Christian Brothers. We serve approximately 560 students from the Napa Valley and neighboring Northern California communities, as well as international students from countries around the world. Dedicated, competent, and caring faculty and staff are at the heart of Justin-Siena. Our mission emphasizes educational excellence and a holistic student experience in the context of a loving community that prepares students to serve and lead in an ever-changing world.

To Apply

Please email résumé, letter of interest, contact information for three references, and Employment Application (found on the Career Opportunities page of the Justin-Siena website) to the Assistant to the Administrative Team, Ms. Jamie Powell, jpowell@justin-siena.org.

Submissions will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. Pre-employment background screening is required for all positions.

School policy prohibits discrimination based on the following legally protected characteristics: race, color, gender, marital status, pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions, age, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, sexual orientation, or any other basis protected by applicable federal or state laws.